Crash test babies and the low life ladies
Sell their hearts and souls to the night.
Redlight district, the misguided misfits
Roam the streets 'til they're read their rights.

The criminal lovers
The criminal lovers
The criminal lovers

Drive-by kisses as the twisted sisters
Walk the hot-wired highway to score.
Crack division makes a big decision
And the dogs move in on all fours.

The criminal lovers
The criminal lovers
The criminal lovers

The criminal lovers
The criminal lovers
The criminal lovers

Hundred dollar bills
Booze and sweet pink pills
Children without mothers
And the criminal lovers

The criminal lovers
The criminal lovers
The criminal lovers
