Do you know you steal my breath
Make me feel I'm second best
Hold me up at gunpoint whisper in my ear
Just a narcissistic crush
That doesn't seem to matter much
'Til I find that you're here
Even when you're not
You mean so much
Coz all I've got is your touch
All I've got is your touch
Do you know how juvenile
I feel when you make me smile
I'm above you but I love to be brought down
And if only you'd resist
All the boundaries that exist
I could look you in the eye and tell you now
You mean so much
Coz all I've got is your touch
All I've got is your touch
