They came on boats from across the sea
From faraway places and far distant lands
And still they come to a place where they're free
They fly in on planes with hope in their hands

Sometimes it feels like we're stuffed to the seams
But it's everyone's God given right to follow their dreams

My American Dream
Will come true for me

My American Dream
For all to see
Every woman and man has their own destiny
To dream American Dreams
Dreamz with a z.
To dream American Dreams
Dreamz with a z.
