I'm not ready to confront
I'd rather cement my words this way
This could be the easy road out
But I'm just not all that happy

So I'm writing all this down
And I'll file it in a drawer someday
In lieu of the conversation
We'd probably forget to have anyway

I won't hold anything back
And I won't hold anything in
Feel like I know where this is going
And I might know how it ends
But I'm still willing to begin

You should know my story by now
And why I'm optimistic cautiously
I understand it's not your fault
And I'm not taking anything back
You still end up with, oh, most of me

I won't hold anything back
And I won't hold anything in
Feel like I know where this is going
And I might know how it ends
But I'm still willing to begin

I expect you to fly from New York to L.A.
Land on my doorstep
Oh, smile at me and say
It was worth it to see most of me
Oh, do you love most of me?

You're just crossing paths
Oh, with the way he left me
And I'm not saying a word
I am watching you quietly

'Coz you're gonna have to prove me wrong
Before I know this is right
And we don't have to decide tonight

Just wait for me patiently
Oh and you'll get all of me, oh

I won't hold anything back
No and I won't hold anything in
Feel like I know where this is going
And I might know how it ends
But I'm still willing to begin
Yeah, I'm still willing to begin
