From "Tarzan & Jane" DVD

There's a rhythm of this world
In every nation
An never ending song in celebration
A song to dance is on the wind
Singing through the trees
It's opened up my world to sky
Make him new for him

Singing to the song of life
Moving to the heartbeat
Singing to the sun and sky
I'm flying
Singing to the song of life
Living every moment
Singing to the day and night
I'm trying hard to believe
It's not just your dream
Singing the song, living the song of life

Singing out the song of life
Flying high
Dancing to the beat of our hearts in paradise

I hear the song about the moon and stars
I hear the children sing
It's a celebration of every heart
Of every living thing
