Da da da da
Da da da da

We were talking to each other 'til dawn You put your arms around me and you asked me what was wrong
I tried to be so serious, you smiled and played along You were leaving town tomorrow, yeah tomorrow you'd be gone

Da da da da
Da da da da

We must have had the stars above and heaven on our side
'Cause we fell in love before we even made it through the night
But you were leaving town, and started another kind of life
You walked me to the door and we tried to say goodbye

Maybe I've never found the right way
Kept my love hidden underground
Baby I wish that there was some way
That I could turn the clock around

Da da da da
Da da da da

I couldn't sleep, I called up everybody that I knew All my friends said that I'd be crazy if I waited 'round for you
And I wanted to believe them so I called to say we're through
But when I heard your voice, it nearly broke my heart in two

Maybe I've never found the right way
Kept my love hidden underground
Baby I wish that there was some way
That I could turn the clock around

Da da da da
Da da da da

Some say you're lost
I'll find you, someday

Well I jumped into the car but as I headed down the road
I knew that when I got there there might be nobody home
You'd gone away forever and left me all alone, yeah
Now I was on my own

Maybe I've never found the right way
Kept my love hidden underground
Baby I wish that there was some way
That I could turn the clock around

Da da da da
Da da da da
That I could turn the clock around

Da da da da
Da da da da
That I could turn the clock around
