YOU ARE - YOU ARE - I AM

You are - you are - you are [fading]

You are - you are [fading]

You are the moment Martha's mad man came out of the darkness

You are - you are - you are [fading]

The eye glass of the nearly blind

You are the foot print in the sand of Easter Island

You are - you are - you are [fading]

The fusion in the furnace of the sun

I am the captain cried across the lonely sea,

I am undoubtly what I'll be

I am the soldier sang across the lonely field

I am and I'll do whatever I feel.

You are the time between solar fire and the silence

You are - you are [fading]

You are the last chord in the symphony of the lost

You are the sign between the high road and the low road

You are - you are [fading]

You are the pen in the moving hand of time

You are the last post played by the Alamo soldier

You are - you are [fading]

You are a spaceman at the very edge of time

You are the single shaft of sunlight in the night time

You are - you are [fading]

You are the coolness in the very heat of the fire

You are the moment Martha's madman came out of darkness

You are - you are [fading]

You are the eyeglass of the nearly, nearly blind

You are, you are [Repeating] [Fading]
