oh i want all your friends around girl i work to put you down girl and laughed to see you cry and yet you're standing by i tried to make it clear girl that i don't want you near girl the price is much to high oh yet you're standing by and i try to go home, try to go home, try to go home, try to go home,

try to go home without you i guess i don't make my mind girl but i always known that i wind up loving you this hurting don't make sense girl i want to say the best is just a pretense girl oh now i don't need to lie and i'm so glad that you're standing by yes, yes, i'm so glad that you're standing by girl yes, yes, i want to tell the world that i'm so proud you're mine girl oh no i won't cry no more i don't have to be a fool in life no more
