Manfred Mann's Earth Band - Marha's Madmen

Martha has a madman Standing hidden in the shadows
He's got a long curved Turkish dagger
With a bejewelled handle

He's tellin her the world is full of freaks and geeks and simples and he's Hiding like a leprechaun under stones and in the ripples
In the pool of time she thought she knew it - but someone threw a stone into it
Which breaks up the surface and it's makin' her nervous and it's true
What can she do - - - yes it's true
What can she do - - - Martha yes I guess you'll have to wait around - another thousand years

Martha's gettin' nervous as she wanders
Through his valley
Where the shadows always frightening
And the whispers tell her stories
