Why we still trapped inside this crazy situation?
Can't find a path and see the sunlight to salvation.
Am I so blind or are we just another lost generation?

I keep on searching never there for a solution.
Can never find a proper way to conversation.
And all I'm asking is: My never lose myself, my inspiration.

Why we still trapped inside this crazy situation?
Can't find a path and see the sunlight to salvation.
And all I'm asking is: My never lose myself, my inspiration.

We should go before the sun takes us so away
All we need is everyone
We could go so far away to our new home
All we need is everyone
