scroll unfolds this plan
open path in sand
hungry mind strong hand witness birth of man

thou hast many paths to choose destination towards truth this creation wild and new desolation since the womb

seek and ye shall find
this gift of time
innovate
lost is not a state
it is the way
dominate
work and you will earn
in proper turn
procreate
destroy and lay to waste and you will taste
castigation

learn to speak and teach strengthen up the weak
bear survival's test
you're not meant to last freezing...screaming

burning...dreaming

growing
