It's the second time around for you and I girl
And believe me woman it's confusing me
I'm afraid to say let's make up and all's forgiven
But something tells me I'm heading for heartbreak
So lady please I'm praying that
This time will be different
That you and I can share the same that I visualize

Are you really ready for love girl, or is
It just the lonely talking again
Are you really ready for love girl or is
It just the lonely talking again
Now the time before when we got together
You promised you'd be forever home to me

But all i got from you is lots of talking
Lonely nights to feel with misery ao lady please
Please tell me now that when I fulfill your needs
But won't believe me even knowing
All that you come back tell me

Are you really ready for love girl, or is
Just the lonely talking again
Are you really ready for love girl, or is
The lonely talking again, tell me sugar please

Tell me are you really ready for love girl
Or is it just the lonely talking again
Are you really ready for love girl
Or is it the lonely talking again
I wanna know, I wanna know
Are you really ready for love girl
Or is it just the lonely talking again
