I'll take one with the sunrise
I'll take two in the afternoon
Heavy breathing in the evening
(Now I gotta hope that I can sleep at all)
And they're all gone by tomorrow
(Now I gotta try to make this feeling strong)
If they're all gone, I won't know what to do

I'll put half in a hiding spot and keep it there for you
(Keep it there for you)
There's just not enough to feed the family
And I can't to mangage to save a morsel and I-
I'm so hungry

I'll take one with the sunrise
I'll take two in the afternoon
Heavy breathing in the evening
(As far as I can tell the safe will never crack)

There's just not enough to feed the family
And I can't to mangage to save a morsel and I-
I'm so hungry
There's just not enough to feed the family
And I can't to mangage to save a morsel and I-
I've been starving

It's unable to be fixed
It's unreconcilable
It's unable to be fixed
It's unreconcilable
There's just nothing here to fix
It's unable to be fixed
It's unreconcilable
and I'm scared there is no cure
It's unable to be fixed
It's unreconcilable
There's just nothing here to fix
There's just nothing here
