Everybody wants to see the worst in you
Shadowed by the actions of a pact you can't undo

I never stay awake to understand the things you do
Without getting too close to you
I can't find a reason why you wasted all our time

And I won't share your anger!
It doesn't do me any good to feel
And we can't say our feelings the right way!
Until we learn, things won't ever change... no!

I never stay awake to understand the things you say
Without letting it get to me
I'm already getting used to being locked out of your life
Get out of alive

And I won't share your anger!
It doesn't do me any good to feel
And we can't say our feelings the right way!
Until we learn, things won't ever change... no!
