Don't say a word, don't be grateful if I ever made you laugh.

Let's make believe what's at stake here's more than just your reputation.

She's got the photos but no recollection.

He's got the motive but no transportation.

Purely courteous across my chest.

Are you cutting me out now, after crawling inside?

Turn away your head.

What do I deserve, what do I deserve instead?

It's a surprise you haven't caught on yet.

It's nothing personal, you're an embarrassment.

Don't cut me out.

We're offering nothing but the best accommodations.

Just tell us who you are, just tell us who you are.

We're offering nothing but the best accommodations.

Just tell us who you are, just tell us who you are.

Turn away your head.

What do I deserve, what do I deserve instead?

It's a surprise you haven't caught on yet.

It's nothing personal, you're an embarrassment.

Don't cut me out.

It's a surprise you haven't caught on yet.

It's nothing personal, you're an embarrassment.

Don't cut me out.
