So let's commence
Chapter one first page of the new beginning
Pack your bags cause I think we're leaving
I know exactly who we are
So jump on in and let's get started

Say goodbye to the things we love
And leave them all behind
It won't do no good when we're just trying to ride
I know exactly who we are
So jump on in and let's get started

Gasoline
We'll need more let's find some cash and sell your things
Let's go full force until we're force to leave
I know exactly who we are
So jump on in and let's get started

Follow me my misfits
And leave this world behind
As we ride like New York City gangsters
Lighting it up as we drop the bomb
Follow me my misfits
We need someone
Let's show them what we got

Don't ask where
Just have faith I'm sure that's enough to get us there
We got too much that we need to share
I know exactly who we are
So jump on in and let's get started

Get in line
Make sure no one gets left behind
We need to fight before this world becomes blind
I know exactly who we are
So jump on in and let's get started

Follow me my misfits
And leave this world behind
As we ride like New York City gangsters

Lighting it up as we drop the bomb
Follow me my misfits
We need someone
Let's show them what we got

Follow me my misfits
And leave this world behind
As we ride like New York City gangsters
Lighting it up as we drop the bomb
Follow me my misfits
We need someone
Let's show them what we got

And leave this world behind
As we ride like New York City gangsters
Lighting it up as we drop the bomb
Follow me my misfits
We need someone
Let's show them what we got

We need someone
Let's show them what we got
Let's show them what we got
