Okey dokey (spoken)

won't you take me won't you take me to the edge of night and make me won't you make me walk into the light and there'll be no eyes no eyes that seen such beauty will lose their sight and there'll be no lies no lies that you can tell me to make things right cause i gave all my money to people and things and the price i'm still paying for the shit that it brings doesn't fill me with hope for the songs that you sing

tonight this is your life angel child

when you find out when you find out who you are you'll know you'll be free to see your own ability but there'll be no eyes no eyes that seen such beauty could lose their sight
no lies that you could tell me to make things right

angel child tonight
this is your life
this is your life
angel child of mine

this is your life
angel child tonight

this is your life
angel child of mine
this is your life
this is your life
angel child tonight
this is your life
this is your life
angel child
