Trying to press, what you might be feeling why suppress, what you might be needing you missed the moon on monday morning you were lying in your sink
you missed the moon on monday morning cause you don't mean anything to anyone anymore why confess, well you wouldn't need to because on your desk, theres more to be seen to

by the time just keep on ticking until I get my sweet release by the time just keep on winding until this cold-stop has ceased and everyone can see the sun

i've send underwater, slept with your daughter she told me what your rule book read i've been to the slaughter, slept with your daughter so won't you let me have my head and then I can see the sun

you missed the moon on monday morning because you don't mean anything to anyone, anymore

and down this road I'll keep on winding until this cold-stop has ceased

Everyone can see the sun
