This one's for the freaks
For you're so beautiful
For all the devotion
Written in your soul
This one's for the freaks
For the lost and weak
For the butterflies and devotees and disciples of our destiny

And like the underdogs we are
Shining bright, but they'll disappear
And like the underdogs we are
Passing like some fading stars
Like some fading stars

This one's for the freaks
The beaten down and crushed
The shy and the drawn
Or just out of touch
May you stay like freaks
May you make mistakes
May you never break
For underdogs revenge is sweet
Revenge is sweet

And like the underdogs we are
Shining bright, but they'll disappear
And like the underdogs we are
Passing like some fading stars
Like some fading stars

This one's for the freaks
This one's for the freaks
People I needed to fuck
Need to fuck people like me
This one's for the freaks
For the lost and weak, this one's for the freaks
