Every single day
When I think of you
I'd stop and say,
"I'm in love with you"

Everywhere I go,
Every song I sing
It's only you
That I've been thinking of

Tell me you belong to me,
Your smile is the answer
How should I let you know
If you don't care

Don't you know
That I need you so
To be near to me
To see your smile
To feel your touch
Please hold me for once
But you are just a dream

Don't you know it seems so true
You're a part of me and I'd be there
To keep me warm
Please hold me for once
But you are just a dream

Every now and then
I just wait and see
And hope you realize
How much I love you

Everywhere I go,
Every song I sing
It's only you
That I've been thinking of

Tell me you belong to me,
Your smile is the answer

How should I let you know
If you don't care

Don't you know
That I need you so
To be near to me
To see your smile
To feel your touch
Please hold me for once
But you are just a dream

Don't you know
It seems so true
You're a part of me
And I'd be there
To keep me warm
Please hold me for once

Don't you know
That I need you so
To be near to me
To see your smile
To feel your touch
Please hold me for once
But you are just a dream
