Another world war, a fight with Iraq innocents fear a cruise missile attack a system of lies, power and greed a corrupted world from which hatred will bleed chorus:

Can't you all see it's not TV } seems like he doesn't sing
Can't you all see it's reality } "all" on the record, however,
Can't you all see it's not TV } it's printed in the lyrics Can't you all see it's reality } on the record sleeve foldout

Why must we fear all these ignorant men who try to control us by the push of a pen from down in D.C. or wherever they may be hidden from pain they don't want to see

(chorus)

A wonderful cop show for us all to see just think of how protected we will be with brutal beatings of racist attacks Oh what a feeling to break all those backs!

(chorus)

Murder, beatings, molestings and rape it's all there for us to tape but when it comes down in front of a jury who are the ones who see a bit blurry slaughtering and testing of our animal friends when will this senseless turmoil end from animals to trees to humans to land these things can't be changed by the remote in your hand

(chorus)
