The time has come to relive the pain
Which will be better for me
But not so enjoyable for all of you!!
On the 8th day,
God created mankind.
Why was He having such a bad day?!
Why did He make all of you normal,
And leave out some of the important parts of me?!
He made the teeth that I swallowed,
And the ear that was ripped from my skull!!

The face that no longer exists!!
Deep inside you are merely a mirror image
Of all my atrocities!!
The ugliness that lives outside
Lurks inside each and every one of you!
(sobbing)
Destruction
CAN BE BEAUTIFUL!!!!
Leave the light on for me.
I'M COMING HOME!!!
