Come on people where's the piper goin' today?
(It looks to me like he's headed to the grave)
Run along to the sound of that he creates (He cares for you and for that make no mistake)
Go ahead when you get there let me know (What it's like in the fire down below)
As for me I'll just sip on my disease
It's all I need cause it helps me to my dreams

[Chorus:]

So now I step into the light
Now I'm floatin'
New horizons
On my search for greater things
On arrival
New horizons
On my search for greater things

Well my spirit's high tonight
And denial's by my side
I raise my glass up high and give a toast to the moon and how it shines
Now the warmth it fills me right
As it beats me down inside
One right hook to my worthless life will send me back to dreams tonight

[Chorus]

The beast lays empty at my feet - oh - my weary head
I cracked my gums and broke my teeth on the god of porcelain
So dry me off and dry me out - oh - the time has come
To flip that top and light the flame - oh
I'm floatin', I'm floatin', I'm floatin'

On arrival
New horizons
On my search for greater things
On arrival
New horizons
On my search for greater things

Now I'm floatin'
New horizons
On my search for greater things
