

Mannequin, Die "Locking Elizabeth"

Visit "Locking Elizabeth" on MotoLyrics.com

I've got a secret family
No one will ever know
Under the meak and narrow
A faded funeral

Bury the weeping widow
Under a sleep halo

Show me a witness
Show me a witness
Showing it will do nothing for you

Show me your weakness
Show me your weakness
Knowing that I would lay down for you

Show me a witness
Show me your weakness
Show me...
Show me...
Knowing it will do nothing for you

Trusted the hated harrow
Cross twice to curse this crime
Wish me a simple death
You're locking Elizabeth

Bury the weeping widow
Under a sleep halo

Show me a witness
Show me a witness
Showing it will do nothing for you

Show me your weakness
Show me your weakness
Knowing that I would lay down for you

Show me a witness
Show me your weakness
Show me...
Show me...

Knowing it will do nothing for you

Show me a witness
Show me a witness
Show me a witness

Deprived inside
Your fabricated life
Come truth in time
Your basement full of lies

How does it feel
It's real

Show me a witness
Show me a witness

Show me your weakness
Show me your weakness
Knowing that I would lay down for you

Show me a witness
Show me your weakness
Show me...
Show me...

Show me your weakness
Show me a witness
Show me a witness

Show me a window
