Whose there
Coming up slowly
Starting to grow on me
Perfect and lonely
Go there
Why should I go there
I'll let it go and
Let her explode there

Shake these suffragette stories
Witches and warnings
That teather the holding
Control me
Hit me and scold me
The hurtful unholy
It's endless and endless

This way and that way
How's it going to be
And what's wrong with me now
When I can't help to be

Who's there
Shaking, I'm shaking
Trusted and fading
Tell me you hate it
Know me
Ghost in your story
Second unholy
Takes one to know me

Who's there
Suffered and senseless
Committed to kill this
Whispers and witness
Control me
Hit me and scold me
The hurtful unholy
It's endless and endless

This way and that way

How's it going to be
And what's wrong with me now
When I can't help to be

This way and that way
No one knows but
Everyone's sure that
This way or that way
How's it going to be

Give up the ghost

Hide here with me
and I'll die here for you
And I'll here with me
And I'll give up the ghost

Who's there
Coming up slowly
Starting to grow on me
Perfect and lonely
Go there
Why should I go there
What's there to show when Everyone knows it
They know, no

This way and that way
How's it going to be

This way and that way
No one knows but
Everyone's sure that
This way or that way
How's it going to be
