every day's such a task when this world's such a mess i try hard i do my best won't get bogged down like all the rest got no hampsters in my head, no monkey's on my back no chains and shackles to hold me down i wanna fly, i wanna fly cuz i'm alive, i'm alive the world could be such a better place who needs the garbage it's all a waste don't need the drugs, don't need the booze use that stuff you'll only lose big decision, make it right it's a battle, win the fight everything's gonna be alright i wanna fly, i wanna fly i'm alive, i'm alive, i'm alive, i'm alive screams in rooms, filled with negativity, filled with gloom all the walking trash through the ones that have to live like that not me, i'm no screwed up zombie, not of the living dead i wanna think, have a clear head places to go, people to meet cant do things with your head in the sheets tearing down all the walls, got the world by the balls got no hampsters in my head, no monkey's on my back no chains and shackles to hold me down i wanna laugh i wanna cry cuz i'm alive, i'm alive
