She said a taste was all I'd need
I never asked her why
Now I really don't know why
Sweet love had to lie

She told me I should sell my soul
I never asked the price
Now I really don't know why
Sweet love said goodbye

Did you ever love someone?
You thought would never do you wrong
Did you ever need someone?
Turned around and they were gone
Did you give your heart so true
Have it handed back to you

She told me that her love was true
I told her that I loved her too
Now I really don't know why
Sweet love had to die
No I really don't know why
Sweet love had to die.
