She says the things that she does
She does for the sake of love
Tryin' to understand me

She holds her head in her hands
Says I'm an impossible man
I think she'd like to change me

I think she wants to change me
I think she'd like to change me
Change me, I want to change

The things she said that she needs
Never made much sense to me
And she talks to me of freedom

Another lock, another key
Another chain, she makes for me
She has no sense or reasons

I think she wants to change me
I think she'd like to change me

Change me, I want to change

Lead

She says the things that she does
She does for the sake of love, I want to love
Tryin' to understand me

Another lock, another key
Another chain, she makes for me, I want to no, I want to
She has no sense or reasons

I think she wants to change me
I think she'd like to change me
Change me, I want to change.
