In the silence of the darkness, when all are fast asleep
I live inside a dream, calling to your spirit
As a sail calls the wind, hear the Angel's sing
Far beyond the sun, across the western sky
Reach into the blackness, find a silver line
In a voice I whisper, a candle in the night
We'll carry all our dreams on a single beam of light

Close your eyes, look into the dream
Winds of change will winds of fortune bring

Fly away to a rainbow in the sky
Gold is at the end for each of us to find
There the road begins where another one will end Here the four winds know who will break and who will bend
All to be the master of the wind

Falling stars now light my way, my life was written on the wind
Clouds above, clouds below, high ascend the dreams within
When the wind fills the sky, the clouds will move aside
And there will be the road to all our dreams
And for any day that stings, two better days it brings Nothing is as bad as it seems

Close your eyes, look into the dream
Winds of change will winds of fortune bring

Fly away to a rainbow in the sky
Gold is at the end for each of us to find
There the road begins where another one will end
Here the four winds know who will break and who will
All to be the master of the wind

Fly away to a rainbow in the sky
Gold is at the end for each of us to find
There the road begins where another one will end
Here the four winds know who will break and who will

All to be the master of the wind

Fly away to a rainbow in the sky

Gold is at the end for each of us to find

There the road begins where another one will end

Here the four winds know who will break and who will

All to be the master of the wind

Fly away to a rainbow in the sky
