And now the time has come when all is said and done
We're back together on the road it's time to fly
No more time to wait you know it feels so great Wearin' leather on a horse of steel I ride

I ain't waitin' to get old, I'm runnin' hot, I'm never cold
Kiss my ass if you don't like me, I don't care
I got my wheels, I got my friends, we're on the road again
We're all crazy, gonna ride until we die

Time to burn, you losers better learn
No one controls our goddamn life
We'll do just what we feel, riding horses made of steel
We're here to burn up the night

Losers try to put us down it's just another day
I got no money or big house, just got life
I don't like to save it's more fun to spend
If you like metal, you're my friend
And that bike out in the yard, well, that's my wife

Don't try to understand me, my family never will
Had to punch my teacher out, now he's chilled
I might stay in school or die in prison
Either way it's my decision, one more beer and heavy metal
And I'm just fine

Time to burn, you losers better learn
No one controls our goddamn life
And we'll do just what we feel, riding horses made of steel
We're here to burn up the night

We are the undefeated, we're not living in the past
We're here tonight to kick some goddamn ass
Feel the power of the wheel, let's drink to riding steel
Livin' hard and ridin' fast, yeah

Time to burn, you losers better learn
No one controls our goddamn life

We'll do just what we feel, riding horses made of steel
We're here to burn up the night
