Thunder touched my soul
I heard a call all should know
It's my time I'm alive
Some will come, some will go
But most will never know
That greatness lives inside

Like the night turns into day
Doesn't matter what they say
My will is strong as a mountain's high
I feel so tall I can touch the sky

Speak your mind, put me down
Say your prayers when I'm around
I live the life I'm not passing by Shorn of hopes and dreams
I don't buy their foolish schemes
I just walk on by

I was born with a hero's soul
If you got one then you know
Reach my hand where the eagles fly
I feel so tall I can touch the sky

I was born with a hero's soul
If you got one then you know
Reach my hand where the eagles fly
I feel so tall I can touch the sky

Like the night turns into day
Doesn't matter what they say
My will is strong as a mountain's high
I feel so tall I can touch the sky

I was born with a hero's soul
If you got one then you know
Reach my hand where the eagles fly
I feel so tall I can touch the sky
