Nothing is here for me
Just the music on the inside
Meaning nothing to the outside
Looking blankly at me

No need for words at all
When I fell apart in pieces
Helped to cover up my weakness
Does it seem like I care

We're golden
A symmetry that brings us close
Can't you see we're golden
It's only us that see it
We're golden
Telepathy that bonds us close
Can't you see we're golden
Or do I have to spell it

People can be so cruel
I remember feeling lonely
Feeling ridiculed and ugly
For the way that I am

Look after number one
If you don't then no-one else will Always busy with their own things
At least you know that you care

We're golden
A symmetry that brings us close
Can't you see we're golden
It's only us that see it
We're golden
Telepathy that bonds us close
Can't you see we're golden
Or do I have to spell it

Oh we're golden
A symmetry that brings us close
Can't you see we're golden

It's only us that see it
Oh we're golden
Telepathy that bonds us close
Can't you see we're golden
Or do I have to spell it
