"Great Big Plan"

Visit "Great Big Plan" on MotoLyrics.com

I was laying in the grass just like a schoolboy you were looking at my eyes like they were crystal balls and I miss the way it feels to touch the ground beneath me and you were right, yeah you can have it all and I ain't the type to be afraid of an animal but I feel as if I'm falling like a cannonball fall into me cause I have got a great big plan for you that only I know just wait, you'll see it all come through at the first snow well I took you out to lunch and spent some dollars I was sicker than a dog, yeah I was such a mess but the only thing I felt was the warmth of your smile upon me and you felt right, so I gave you it all
