i'll give you the sun the rain the moon the stars and the mountains i'll give you the world and all that you've wish for and even though girl i'll love you more than you could know and that's for shoo

i'll climb the highest tree cross the widest sea nuthin' could discourage me and i'll pray that you'll be always there for me forever more ready or not i'll give you everything and more all that i've got (it's yours) i'll give you everything all that you're lookin' for i'll give you my heart my soul my time my love if it sounds good i will be the earth and all that you live for and even more cuz girl i love you more than words can show my love is pure i'll walk a thousand miles sail a thousand seas nuthin' will discourage me and i'll pray that you will be always there for me forever more
