Just leave it alone
just leave it to die
just pack it away behind your eyes and don't apologize or cause a big scene there's no need to be so extreme or dramatic these days
cause you are not my life anymore and the sooner you learn that, the better what's done is done so just put it away there ain't nothing more for you to say to me it's fine to be friends it's fine to still talk but excuse me for not giving a fuck cause I ain't who I was but you're still yourself and you cannot talk to me the way that we dealt with when I broke your heart so spare me the bullshit cause I have moved on
