I woke up with a headache the day just don't feel right you went to take a shower but lost your appetite

you're changing your prescription, i'm barely getting dressed i'm having trouble sleeping you're feeling meaningless and maybe it's the changing of the seasons

it's something with the barometric pressure there really doesn't have to be a reason let's be sad together.

you? touch me when i'm sleeping i kiss you on your face and i tell you that i love you no, you can't be replaced i know you feel like crying, i hold you when you do

and if i feel like dying, i know you'll hold me too.

it's something with the barometric pressure
let's be sad together.
let's be sad together.
let's be sad together.
let's be sad together.
