

Mansions

"Seven Years"

Visit "Seven Years" on MotoLyrics.com

Fires burned for seven years, I never knew.
I rolled the dice and swore I never made a move.
What do I care if she was your girl an hour or two ago?
It's me and me and me and me alone.

I've been sleeping through communion for a couple months.
I've been too scared to tell you that I gave it up.
If I don't believe in the afterlife does that mean I can't go?
Will it be me and me and me and me alone?

I've got a long black river in the back of my head.
It's taking me down and I am raising the dead.
But if the chemicals drift away, I guess that someday
I'll forget.
But no, I have not yet.

I called you twice today to try to make it right.
But when your girlfriend said you left I lost my appetite.
What do you care if I wanna make this drive out on my own?
Just me and me and me and me alone.
It's me and me and me and me alone.

Visit Mansions page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.