Dear Mavis I'm compelled to write this letter In the hope that you may Soon be getting better I've a feeling you should go and see a doctor If You haven't then you know you really oughta I was worried so I went to See the vicar But before I could confess he first confessed to be a Stripper
Dear Mavis it was very strange to see him So I thought I'd write
And ask your opinion Should I grass on him, report him to the cardinal Or Wether I should egg him on to turn professional If I dob on him they'll Call him plastic scouser But the only thing the stripper wears is plastic Trousers
Mavis' opinion is all we really seek Mavis' opinion is all we Should we... Lie while he's still alive Should we lie while he's still Alive' Cos when the vicar strips he gets away with it Dear Mavis, thought
I'd follow up my Cast your stone now he who never sins Clearly all your Roles are now Defined (You've got yours but I have broken mine) Simply just reflections Of My honest professional belief that I am God (I am God) Stop me before I Go over the edge Stop me before I go over the edge Stop me before I...
Happy children specially in need (Send them to the dentist they will Bleed) Before you get to know exhesitate (Could be gay or could be Straight) Your mental state which separates The action from intention,
Wash your hands (Wash your hands) Stop me before I go over the edge Stop

Me before I go over the edge Stop me before I... Only for tinsel Only for Tinsel Stop me before I go over the edge Stop me before I go over the Edge Stop me before I... letter Drop a line about the fate of our poor Vicar Very
Tragically his time on earth is ended Found him gagged and bound in Stockings and suspenders Dear Mavis if you tell us what your thoughts are
And I hope that they're not biased 'cos you are the vicar's daughter
we should We... Lie now that he has died Should we lie now that he has died 'Cos
When the vicar strips he gets away with it
And we know him as our vicar And by night a part-time stripper And the vicar got suspended in his Stockings and suspenders And he's making wine from water while he dresses Like his daughter And we know that he's a rip off 'cos we've seen him
With his kit off Should we lie now that he has died Should we lie now That he has died 'Cos when the vicar strips he gets away with it
