i'm not supposed to be here no, i quite simply lost the time and all these people gathered round me no, they are no friends of mine pick up the phone, pick up the phone, baby i need you

pick up the phone, pick up the phone,
baby i need you alone

i've been looking in the mirror i hardly recognize my face my name? getting any clearer a open book, i lost my place oh my sweet penelope you waited all this time for me but i am found, i am known, i am finally coming home i'm alive

am i alive?

pick up the phone, pick up the phone,
baby i need you.
pick up the phone, pick up the phone,
baby i need you alone.
