Look, frankly you're a star tonight
Standing under grey light, when I left you
You're watching from afar tonight
You've just become a sight for sore eyes now, yeah

Oh, you've come off the juice
You're sick of all this aural abuse, yeah

Hold the lantern, behold grey lantern, yeah, yeah
Hold the lantern, behold grey lantern, yeah, yeah
Hold the lantern, behold grey lantern

Well frankly you're a freak tonight
You'd stand under my light if I let you
You're looking quite aloof tonight
I'm feeling out of breath since I left you, oh yeah

Oh you've come off the juice
You're sick of all this aural abuse, oh yeah

Hold the lantern, behold grey lantern, yeah, yeah
Hold the lantern, behold grey lantern, yeah, yeah
Hold the lantern, behold grey lantern

Oh, freezing, to touch you, stand in lantern light
Oh, touch you, besides you, it's greyer than at night

Hold the lantern, behold grey lantern, yeah, yeah
Hold the lantern, behold grey lantern, yeah, yeah
Hold the lantern, behold grey lantern
