Long of tooth
Many rings now in tow
Return
Another cycle brought to its close
Grant the heavens thirty years
To make good on their word
Bow your head now, in surrender
Saturn Return
Devoured Descendants
Rivers Flow
Currents damned will never veer
Devoured Descendants
Elders Grow
Branches shorn shall never bear
The burden of the seer
For sight is both a blessing
And a curse
To resurrect the trickster's song
We declare the Arrowhead as Epilogue
Raven Arise
From what was lost
Explorations in decay:

This union is forbidden, Love
Two-spirited embodiment of One
Open windows
Tangled antlers
Crossing over
Through the caverns
Seeking answers

All my words fail
When we meet in dreams
Off the record you were

LAUGHING

In the crashing waves
Gone with the tides
Wading out to the sea
May those crooked spears of light guide you home
May you carry no more crushing weight
A soul displaced
From its herd of white buffalo
Return...
Return to the source
Awaken...
Awake from this dream
Wake from this dream
Explorations in decay

Its just the fingertips on a photograph
A wrong turn off the branching path
Give me station,
Some awareness,
In this static aftermath.
Rising from the ashes
Out of the empty halls of vacuity
Caesura breaks,
Dreamer awake
Adrift in revery
(Awake)
Sleepwalking effigies
As it is in my blood
So it is in the Night Sea
Growing in the silence
Within the womb of a long expectant pause
Timely demise
New worlds arise
Water gives way to fire
(Arise)
Nature's enduring choir
We must turn the old leaf
That we may pen a new page
Burning offerings for a dying age.
