I wish I was less afraid of medium overdrive
I wish it came to last good-bye and have a second chance
And now in the end
Your breathe again
And turn your blood to wine
Buth then the air is cracking life
And taking out your spine

So drink the wine
Drink for health
And pull the spine
Then pray for wealth

Until last good-byes

Domain is changinf for a fee and bullying you around the max accounto on minor key Will beat you to the ground
Now tell your friend
stop to prentend
and tell him to survive
Before the mind begins to drain
And turn you upside-down

So drink the wine
And drink for health
Then Pull the spine
and pray for wealth
Pray for health
Drink for wealth
Pray for wealth
Drink for health

Until last good-byes
