The power of the sciences
Of the child life in birth Makes difference in tenses
In the times of our earth
And the clowns of your brain
Make you murder around Ant the minds of the insane
Make a modem-like sound

Take the hair of the balded
take the eyes of the blind
And hallucinate nurture and now talk to your hand
As their eyes of obsidian
Are laughing at you now
and their eyes of obsidian
are laughing at you now
maniac...

The force of your vitamin has dazzled your steps and you don't need medicin nor whatever you take The seeds breed
the palms died where you have survived you take on the past lands
But you haven't arrived

maniac...

And the vein of their headaches
Of your hard-to-lock mind Just the pinch of a rattle snake has diversified the sand So wild on and control
And fight for the crime So ride on and lay back
And forget the damn chime

maniac...
