It'll happen Tomorrow
You'll sorrow
You'll grief
You'll lose your beliefs

And when all your time passes
You'll rise from the ashes

Something is bleeding
I have this weird feeling Calm down, relax
don't look to the past

When all the time passes
you'll rise from the ashes

Take over the city
You have the authority
Take over the world
Take over my soul

When all time passes
You'll rise from the ashes

When the sun collapses
You'll rise from the ashes
