"The Next Past"

A door opens in my mind a world of flat new land Seas of blinding lights Erasing shadows in the night
Watch me press rewind Digging through my mind Dreaming of the right to live with chaos & spite

Moving to the next past
This future is my last

Moving to the next past
Fit my life into a cast

An empty place aside Memory of my bride
How can I forget need 3 packs of cigarettes Remember the car slide Pain on distaff side That thing i regret crash with that corvette

Watch her body lie
As her soul flew by Windows in her chest that's the final test
What a dark damn sky fulfill my air supply the time was not the best forever she will rest

Moving to the next past
this future is my last

Moving to the next past
Living free at last
