Way too detached to fight the waves...
Reptiles have overtaken everything... but there's still so much to save.
Don't ever let them change your face.
Don't ever let them change your face.

Let them feast upon their own shit.
Let them split their tongues to lie with both ends.
Let them fill their plates with the dead.
Never let them make your face real estate.
(Ã—2)

Let them feast upon their own shit.
Let them split their tongues to doublespeak again.
Let them fill their plates with the dead.
Never let them make your face a mask to hide behind...

A part of their design... An accomplice to this crime...
A product they can buy or sell in any way.
If that's all that you can save, never make it real estate.
