i left you there so wasted discarded by my friends i'm never coming back here this is where old me ends my confidence is so fake i know i'm going to fall but it's better to have gone here than to dream about it all

i need this
i need this

i'm starting to feel lucky but also quiet afraid this beautiful beginning i have reached the point of no return i cannot bring you past here you have to stay and fade i'm moving slowly forward all alone and not so afraid anymore

i need this

i'm never looking backwards the more i do i'll crack
i know you're there but i'm never coming back i'm never coming back

i need this
so long
good luck
godbye
