Don't think I've been in love and don't intend to be but sitting here right now's the closest thing for me

I won't be here much longer
the way it has to be promise me you'll carry on You'll always feel this

energy
that symmetry
that won't just leave you

these voices they keep calling me one day they'll have there way with me my girl, this new world
will never leave you

the cloest thing for me
