Need a sign

Something within me
If! could escape
I'd stay here to cry
To cry like a child
My tears are flames in pain
I swear I'd kill for you
I swear I am possessed

I breathe and I can't sleep
Thunder in the sky
Fear, I don't believe
I breathe and I can't sleep
Thunder in the sky
Fear in my dark mind
I feel the loneliness in the dark

Falling down into the eternal night
Full moon blinds my tired soul

In the end I see your ambitious mind
But when can see your soul, my heart...
I will see that mind as mine
