

Mar De Grises "Summon Me"

Unfulfilled in this acid corner
How could I have let you go?
Drinking silent liquid chaos
Is this finally the time of calm?

Take me away from my soul
Summon me
Sell me to your words
Yet seal me to your silence
As we forget the final smile
Once ingrained to my nothingness

Let me be the north of dust
Not in disguise
Silencer of relentless nights
Your words, my blood

Summon me
Take me through your blood
The truth is I...
... Colourme
Infect me with your jog
